

Benjamin Craig ORWIG

August 20, 1974 - October 26, 2018

Benjamin Craig Orwig, age 44 of St. Charles, Missouri died peacefully on October 26, 2018.

There are many things that can be said about a person's life, how can one sum it up in just a few sentences?

Ben was born on August 20th 1974 in St. Louis, MO to Stephanie Hargate, brother to Courtney Orwig and proud father of Nicholas Orwig. He is preceded in death by his Grandparents, Joseph Walden and Jean Alma Hargate.

Ben enjoyed listening to harder music, something he and his son had in common, they are both metal-heads. He never stopped trying to improve his life and heal old wounds. He had been proudly accepted into the Iron Workers Union back in 2014, and was an apprentice since that time. Family will most likely always remember him as being a painter in his white, paint-stained coveralls; so when he decided to make this career change, most close to him were happily surprised. Ben was a very hard worker, and found a career he took pride in. He loved showing people where and what he was working on. The last project he was working on was the new Amazon center in Saint Peters.

Ben was a deeply religious man, who always had his Bible with him and committed much of it to memory. He always had a prayer in his heart for everyone and never refused to help someone as much as he could. Ben had been living in a small, nice house in historic downtown Saint Charles for the past few months as he worked towards a better future.

Ben cherished his friendships, especially with Alan, who always stood by Ben and supported him unconditionally.

Ben passed away peacefully on October 26, 2018. He was 44 years old. He will be deeply missed by his son Nicholas "Cole" Walden Orwig, family and his best friend Alan.

We are Proud of You for always trying and never giving up.

“ Remember the wedding ceremony at the grand hall in Union Station to our daughter. What a fun ceremony and broadcasted live on the radio. Thank you for being a loving father to our grandson, Nicholas. You're in good company in heaven.
