“ Bryan was a good friend of ours he was a guy of few words but had a heart of gold, he always made sure if there was something in his pawn shop that we wanted.... we got it. I'll always remember Bryan he was such a loving Grandpa, I remember going over to their house and watching him play with Ty, you could just see how much he loved him, RIP Bryan you had a lot of friends and will be missed by all of them, we'll keep an eye on Mona & Kay for ya until we meet again.
