“ Dave, you were my motorcycle-riding, archery-practicing, football-playing high school buddy. You were always one of the wildest, craziest, funnest guys to be around, with the biggest heart of anybody. Also one of the strongest guys that I ever worked out with. And even though I moved away after high school, and didn't see you for 40 years (!), when I did finally see you a few years ago, we picked up right where we left off. So sorry that you had to go so soon, but I'll cherish our times together. I know you're in that place upstairs, charming everyone that you meet in your bigger-than-life way. Farewell, old friend. Rest in peace.
