-MOM-

There are no words to describe the pain we feel knowing you are gone.

So surreal.....

Because even though your body is gone, we can still feel you around us all the time.

We miss you so much mom. You are our everything and we are lost without you here.

<3 WE LOVE YOU WITH ALL OUR HEARTS AND SOULS <3

What an incredible person you are. So very kind and loving to everyone you met. You exuded so much strength in every aspect of the word- physically, emotionally, and mentally. Thank you so much for showing us how to be strong and to stay strong. We have all been through so much in our lives in the journey thus far, still surviving in us, all because of you and what you have taught us. You stayed strong for so long and we understand why you chose to go and that was strength- true strength to say enough is enough.

Just wanted to say, you were right about us not being able to agree with letting you go. We definitely would have said, "Save her and you do whatever you can to keep her with us. We still need her."

We understand, but cannot accept it as of yet. We just miss you Mom.

-You always said there was a reason for everything and figuring out the reason, makes it all worth while.-

LOVE,

Brent, Sarah, Jordan, Kylie, and Harlow

“ So many memories with you. From the countless sleepovers growing up, annoying your kitties, to showing me the ropes at the Hospital. Laughing is apart of every memory. Your soul was one of a kind Aunt Debbie
