“ I’m so sorry to hear of Gene’s passing. I knew Gene from Delmar Gardens and he quickly became a stand out as he reminded me of my father. He was a sweet, kind soul and I know he will be truly missed. I am wishing for peace and comfort to the family.

“ It was a very busy cafeteria for businessmen. Dad and I managed to get a table, but it was right in the middle of the crowded room, ducking the busy waitresses. Finally our lunch came and the young waitress spilled my plate of spaghetti right into my lap! The restaurant went dead silent, the poor waitress almost crying and so embarrassed. I was a little embarrassed myself! Dad popped out "I didn't know she was ticklish !" The place busted out in laughter, and the poor waitress in the middle of the room showed a huge sigh of relief. That was a typical Gene Grimm to the rescue!
