

James "Jamie" Gregory RODERICK

December 19, 1991 - February 28, 2020

James "Jamie" Gregory Roderick, loving son, grandson and nephew passed away at age 28 on February 28, 2020 in O'Fallon, MO. Jaime was born on December 19, 1991 in St. Louis, MO to Brian and Sonja Roderick (nee Moore).

Jamie had a passion for all types of music. He enjoyed reading, drawing, writing, video games, collecting guns and his love of animals.

Jamie could entertain his family and friends with his comedic wit. He could always get himself out of trouble with his mischievous smile. When he was interested in a subject, he pursued it relentlessly; (example-whether it be a family member's medical condition, guns, or law).

Jamie had a kind and generous heart which he proved to the very end by being an organ and tissue donor. With his generous gift he will be helping many others. Prior to that, he was an excellent caretaker for his mom, grandma, and his aunt Terri.

Jamie is survived by his loving parents Brian and Sonja Roderick, his maternal grandparents; James and Betty Moore, his uncle Mark Roderick, aunt Renee Atwood, cousins Michelle Little, Alex Ernst (Tim), Nicholas Roderick, Danielle Atwood, Elizabeth Atwood, great aunt Tammy and Uncle Wayne Ormson, auntie Barbie Moore, auntie Terri Gerler and Dave Gerler, great uncles Phillip Stiles (Carolyn), Ricky Stiles and Kenny Stiles.

Jamie's honorary extended family are Rosalie and Sara Etheredge, Rhonda (Tom) Strahan, Michelle (Rich) Perkins and an abundance of cousins and friends.

Jamie is predeceased by his paternal grandparents, Ronald and Brenda Roderick.

“ Even though Jamie was younger than me, he was much taller than me. He would also joke on my height. Jamie was the type of person that would wear his heart on his sleeve. That is the one thing I did learn from him. He lived life to the fullest. He will be greatly missed. But I know he is looking down at us. Love you
