“ Going to miss you Uncle Johnny. The amount of generosity you gave to my family, I will never forget. What I learned from you, by example, has definitely had a positive impact on my life. You made this world a better, more honorable place to be. I love and thank you.

“ I remember my dad standing up with me as Best Man in my wedding. Then after it was all over he let us stay at his house for the week for our honeymoon. I'm really glad he was able to be there for me when this happened. I love and miss him.

“ Marcia and Johnny were good friends of my mom and when I was in school there was a bus strike and during that they would pick me up and take me to school, sometimes we would stop at McDonald's. Johnny was such a happy guy who was always smiling. My baby shower was at thier beautiful house and I was gifted a beautiful picture frame that Johnny had made. Johnny also made me my first mixed

CD, while we were sitting by thier computer I was looking at thier wedding/honeymoon pictures. One picture in particular stands out to me and it was a picture of Johnny laying on the bed naked! He was so sunburned from fishing while they were in Thati. Johnny will be missed by so many. Marcia my deepest condolences to you. I've never seen a love as strong as yours and Johnny's. You two were perfect for eachother. Heaven certainly gained an amazing angel with Johnny.

“ I met Johnny at work back in the eighties and I can honestly say I liked him from the get go. He made me smile and everytime we ran in to each other he had a hug for me and a new joke to tell me.

When I found out that my BFF (Marcia) was dating Johnny I was so happy for her. I got to see first hand a true love story develope right in front of my eyes. I had the honor of being Marcia"s maid of honor when she married Johnny. Johnny was diffenly a gloating Groom. He wore a smile on his face as big as the day is long. I remember that they decided to take dance lessons before the wedding. I went over to Marcia house to visit them and Johnny couldn't wait to show me his and Marcia's new dance moves. They were so cute together. Johnny even tried to teach me how to dance and I just couldn't do it. I kept stepping on his feet and messing the dance up. We never laughed so hard. One day we will meant again and I cant wait for another big hug and maybe another dance. Rest in peace love always Karen “ Heaven certainly gained an angel - that's for sure. I love you big brother and will miss you always. Marcia I hope you find a little comfort in knowing how much he was loved by everyone. I know how painful this must be for you and know that I am here for you if you need anything.

“ Writing this is so hard as my heart is so sad for Marcia. I am their neighbor and loved being around Johnny and Marcia. So happy and would do anything for you! Johnny gave me a hydrangea from their yard and after he dug it up for me, went ahead and took it to my house on his tractor and then planted it for me. It was just who he was. You will be greatly missed, Johnny. Marcia, all my love.

“ My earliest memory of Johnny is him babysitting me when I was 4 or 5. I remember watching TV laying on his chest on the couch. I went to sleep in no time and the next thing I remember is mom and dad coming home. He was a great big brother.

Patty - February 07 at 05:45 PM

“ Johnny was the love of my life and my best friend. I'm so blessed .ill never forget my 1st hug from him.

Marcia - February 07 at 06:57 PM

“ He gave the BEST hugs!!
