“ What a blessing to know Larry, our neighbor just down the road. With frequent walks past Larry's wheelchair access home, the Lord led me to bring treats and knock on the front door. And so the blessings of knowing Larry began! I will miss him so much: yes, his faithful "you're pretty" welcome (to which I would reply, "You're handsome!"), his plea to "sit" so we could talk face to face, watching him diligently assemble his puzzles, his beautiful smile, his snazzy Cardinals hat, his dear "thank you" for every treat or gift I brought to the house, and oh that twinkle in his eye. What a rare gem of a young man. As an artist myself, I will always treasure his gift of one of his paintings. Best of all, he knew Jesus as his loving Savior. So our Larry Dean is now completely, wonderfully healthy and totally joyful in heaven--where we will hug again! I look forward to continuing to visit Larry's totally delightful brother AJ. He, Teri, their faithful loving caregivers, and Larry and AJ's amazing Mom, Sandy Abbott, remain in my prayers of thanksgiving to know them, and of blessing for them to thrive. "Whatever is true...worthy of praise, think about these things." PHILIPPIANS 4:8

“ With Larry, I always knew, when I walked in that door, his face was going to light up and hugs would be given! There was no such thing as a "bad day" when I was with him. He had so so so much love to give...and he did, to everyone! He loved babies and puppies and going to Creve Coeur Lake! ...OH!...and eating! lol! That man loved to eat!!! "Nom, nom nom!" No one was a stranger to Larry. He was so polite and friendly to everyone. How could anyone resist "You're pretty!" :^D He expressed his excitement when he was watching game shows or sports on TV! He REALLY got into them! His shouts and laughter were contagious. One could not help but share his enjoyment....and music! OH my! He would sing, sway and bob his head! He loved it! Then, of course, is his hat...He had to wear a hat...hat, watch, glasses...every day! Keep the routine! When he completed his puzzles or helped get dressed on his own, he would exclaim, "I did it!"....He was happy for small things. Life was a triumph for him. It was an amazing perspective to be around.

Every day with Larry was a day of being ALIVE, it was a day of shared HAPPINESS, a day of JOY.

Larry, the day you left this earth, I was at the hospital, as my dear friend gave birth to a premature little girl...I have a picture of the little princess sticking her tongue out...Just like you. Sticking out that tongue and calling us "poopoo"! lol I hope part of you came back in her. I hope she has the love of life like you did. It will be a blessing! Thank you for the memories, Larry. You will always be alive in our hearts. My love to Sandra and AJ...Terry too. You were like a brother to her. We will miss you.

“ Lar Bear was the life of the party. His smile and sense of humor were contagious. He had the biggest heart and gave the best hugs. He will be deeply missed and my thoughts go out to his family.
