“ I still miss you as much today as I did the day you left us an I'm still trying to come to the realization the you are truly gone.. I know you didn't mean for any of this to happen i just wish you would have called me that night I would have came to or you could have come to my house you know you were always welcome my door was always open to you... I miss you so very much.. You truly were the best big brother anyone could ever ask for i know we had our arguments an disagreements but what brother an sister don't I never thought you would be gone so soon I wasn't prepared i wasn't ready for you to leave me i never even knew you were doing what you were doing again why did you hide that from me.. If i would have known i wouldn't have left you alone.. I Love You I'll write again.. An i know you can hear me talking to you all the time's... Love Always.. Amy

“ So many memories, I can't find just one to share. For me, it's one whole memory, I guess. We have been cousins and friends for as long as I can remember back. We had so much fun each time we were together, so many belly laughs and silliness. You were truly one of a kind and dearly loved! I will miss our random texting, calls and fun times together. I will miss our deep conversations too! We shared some great times in Michigan AND Missouri! We could just look at each other and know what the other was thinking. I keep wanting to call you to ask what is going on and then I remember I can't! I will miss you always and love you very much! Until we meet again....Love your cousin and friend, Dana

“ So terribly, terribly sorry that you couldn't grieve in public for Edmund. So terribly, terribly sorry both your families chose to not love you enough to let you be your true selves. I hope you and Edmund are together forever.
