“ Just learned of Rachel's passing. I am truly sorry for your loss. I know how hard it is to lose a loved one. I pray God gives you comfort and strength and that you may always remember that no matter what happens in your life, God loves us and is always with us.

P.S. Rachel was a warrior, not only a Wentzville Warrior, but I saw Rachel kick two guys  at a party at the same time. Plus, she was an extremely hard worker, a generous person, and a great mother.

“ It's tough to grasp the reality of you being gone. I still barely believe it. You were the best mom, grandma, friend I or anyone else could have. Watching you battle that nasty cancer is what gives me faith you were taken by God for reason of peace and comfort. Today as we lay your body to rest I am so happy to know that everyone will be there for the same reason, they love you, are saddened to let you go, and wish they had more time with you. I know me, Brett, and your grandbabies do. We talk about you all the time. I'll never forget everything you have done for me. I love you momma ♡
