“ Rich was such a beautiful sweet man. He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers have been with you all since I heard. Greg, Jeff, Patty, Mike, and the whole Seger family, I'm praying for you as you go through this heartbreaking time. May you all find peace as you lean on each other and the One who is the Great Comforter. Even though we don't get to see each other very much, you know that you all are close to my heart and I love you always. Love and Hugs from Laura Velloff Rodgers.

“ Rich was my first love, first kiss, in 7th grade. We went steady that whole year. I remember ice skating, hand in hand around January Wabash lake. When we went inside the yellow building to warm up he carved out our initials surrounded with a heart. Our song was Someday We'll be Together, by Diana Ross and the Supremes. I will never forget my first love. RIP Richard.
