“ My wife and I met Roger not long after we were married. We met Roger in the spring of 1980 when I went to work at Big Arch Leasing in St Louis. I worked with Roger at several Trucking companies up to a couple of years ago, when I went to work for someone else, but I still kept in touch with him pretty regular. I was floored when I got the news just yesterday. Roger and Rose are some of the best friends we ever had. I will be looking forward to seeing him again when the LORD calls me home. Until then, there are plenty of memories to hold on to..Bob and Donna Bailey

“ I first met Roger in the late 70's when I hired on at Big Arch Leasing of Dothan Alabama. He was the first one to befriend me and we made many runs together. It's always sad to hear of a friends passing, but I rejoice in his home going. Praise the "LORD"! I am grateful to Bob Bailey for letting me know. We were all good friends and trucked many miles together.
They are fond memories!

“ They say you never forget your first love. For me it's true. We were 9 when I first became aware of him at Moline Baptist Church. I loved him for many years. Was broken hearted when he married at 16. I'm sorry he died too young. I'm glad to see he was in church and I sincerely hope he was saved and was in a long time marriage.
