“ My uncle would think outside of the box to make Christmas special at our grandma's house from playing games to getting me and my sister batteries as a gift knowing half of our presents would need them..although we didnt expect that heavy box to be full of batteries.. that Christmas I won't forget it because we didn't have to wait to get home to play with our toys that him and my aunt got us...he made traditions and I'm not sure if he knew that...he also knew the one thing that would keep me busy at his house is give me a brush and an animal and I was set.
I will love and miss him always.

“ Tim was one of a kind and I will remember him as tough on the outside but soft on the inside. My thoughts and prayers are with you Nina. I'm sure Tim will be causing trouble "up there"!!

“ Nina and family, I am sorry I never had the chance to meet you. Tim was a classmate and had quite the weird sense of humor--MY kind of humor--in high school. Ran into him a couple times in early '80s. I wish Tim had been healthy enough for you to have really enjoyed your last few years together. Caregiving is so emotionally and physically draining, even when you know you would never trade a day. I hope Tim is at peace, and I wish peace for you and your family.
