“ Tina.....The world isn't as bright from here on out; but Heaven is. You will be so missed as you fly with the angels. Your presence made everyone that knew you smile. It has been my honor to pray for you through this and to have raised our boys with you into the great men they've become. Rest peacefully sweet friend.

“ Tina I have never in my life have met the most understanding compassionate and giving and most important of all an awesome pool player. Words can't describe how sad and lonely I am right now ,not only did I lose MY VERY BESTEST FRIEND FOR 23 YEARS, i lost the sister I never had .Tina your were my safe haven I knew no matter how bad I mess up or the wrong decisions I made you were ALWAYS ALWAYS there for me.I am being selfish right now cuz I am mad at the whole world including the Lord above for taking the only person besides my blood family that I loved with with all my heart, but then a friend told me only God takes the BEST and my friend that is diffently you.I am relieved that your not in any more pain.Tina you will always from the time I have left on this earth be on my mind from the minute I wake up in the morning to the time I go to bed.When I see your grandkids I will ALWAYS let them know what a wonderful and loving nana t they had and yes I promise not to tell them of any of our shanagans we did growing up together. Do me one favor make sure you get a room big enough for the both of us cuz like we did all those years when I came over we always had our slumber parties and gab sessions because I wouldn't want to see anyone else's face when I join those pearly gates but my one and only BEENER.Good bye for now but I will see you so my friend.until then test in peace
